“ Yesterday we lost the head of our clan, our amazing 103 year old Nanny. It's no coincidence that it was All Saints Day.

She died just like she lived....Her Way, at home, surrounded by her family. She came to this country all alone with her 3 year old son 80 years ago, to be reunited with the love of her life, Carmen, who had made a tough choice (to leave Italy before he got to see his child born) when his ticket became available. That's how it was back then, it didn't matter that she was pregnant, he seized the opportunity, when it presented itself, to move to America and make a new life for them. Once back together, they raised 3 kids and went on to have 8 grandchildren and 15 great grandchildren. And oh how she adored her family!

We all learned so many life lessons from her: as she was always dishing them out!! :) When anyone came to visit she was always there with a good meal, some good advice, stories of the old country and a bowl of candy in the dining room.

She was quite the backyard gardener and always said that "if you spent your life with your hands in the dirt, growing your own food, you were sure to live a nice, long life.". Well she definitely knew what she was talking about! She passed along her love of gardening and cooking/baking to countless members of the family and so many of her delicious recipes are on rotation in all of our houses that for sure will be passed on to many future generations.

She was a strong, courageous, loving, woman and such an inspiration to us. She lived a beautiful, long life and will be missed by all who loved her

She will never be forgotten.... but she his finally up above with her true love, Pop.

May you Rest In Peace...We will miss you our sweet Nanny. Xoxo
