“Daddy, you are missed so very much. I still can't believe you're not here and feel this is a bad dream. Since you've been unable to come back to New Jersey, everyday I miss our daily phone calls, checking up on each other. I miss looking at the calendar and getting excited to book my trip down to see you. I miss all your good advise and words of encouragement. And everyday, no matter how sick you were, I miss you asking me how John was doing and telling me you're praying for him, and to take good care of him, even up to your last days. But I'm most thankful that you're not suffering anymore and know you're up there dancing. All my love, your daughter Debbie
