

Alice Lukasik

September 1, 2023

Alice Lukasik (nee Ceigersmidt) of Venice, Florida passed away on September 1st, 2023, fighting until the very end with the support of her loving family. Alice was born in Queens, NY on April 12, 1946 to Arthur and Alice Ceigersmidt. Her beautiful life will be forever cherished by the lives of her daughter Jeanette MacKenzie and her husband Alexander, her adoring grandchildren Isla and Kai, her older brother Arthur Ceigersmidt and wife, Sheila and younger sister Arlene Mulligan and husband, Steve along with their children, Sean, Kevin, Colleen, Jenn, Tracey and Matt.

Formerly employed at Lederle, she lived in Pearl River, New York where she raised her daughter until relocating to Venice, Florida for over 20 years. While there, she embodied the core values of the UNITY church of Venice where she also worked to help support the operations of the church. She expanded her talents by learning how to play the Djembe drums, participating in sunset drum circles at Manasota Key beach. She also found a love of eagles, which inspired her to pursue photography, through the love and support of her Southwest Florida Bald Eagle nest community.

Viewing hours will be hosted on Thursday, Sept. 7th from 1 – 3pm, at the Barrett Leber Funeral Home in Tenafly, NJ with a memorial service hosted at 3pm by Rev. Dr. Martin Ritchie and a repass hosted by the MacKenzie family thereafter. In lieu of flowers, tribute gifts are welcome to support CROW http

“ I am so sorry for your loss of your sweet mother. She was a dear friend to many of the SWFL eagle photographers including myself. Here is a photo I took of her during one of her visits. She also loved the horses in the pasture where the eagles nest is. We have and always will miss you sweet Alice.
