“ Thinking of a memory brings warmth to my heart for more than one reason. My memories are of gratitude because you shared your home with me and my Mom. Feeling loved because you always found a way to be part of my life and the best blessing the gift of my cousins. Gracias Negra por quidarme,por quererme. Por querer a mis Hijos y por la bendicion de mis primos que amo tanto. Por hoy llorare pero por siempre te recordare con una sonrisa. Gracias Reina.

“ Abuela Negra “ was one of the most caring and open person I knew.. I miss calling her everyday to come over and her cuddles along with kisses. Over these last few years I have noticed that she was one of the most important people in my life. She loved me so much with all her heart as I did too. I was devastated when I found out she passed because she was a big part of my life. I miss her asking me to help her with work and how she would be waiting for me to finish school and call me her “ Camilita Linda.” I am so grateful to have had her in my life and that I built so many memories with her. Now more than ever I give thanks to God for giving me the best 11 years of my life with her. Abuela Negra, you have no idea how much I wish you were here but I know that you are in a better place now with Papa Dios watching over us as a angel because of your noble and pure heart. Love you forever to the moon and back, and back again, your “ Camilita Linda”.. Camila

“ My dearest mom, today is the day that I say my final goodbye and as I write these words I can't find the strength to even get out of bed to face what the day lies ahead. I am in great disbelief. I long to hear your voice, hear your laughter, see your beautiful smile and the way you faced life with so much joy. Mom I find comfort in knowing how much you were loved not only by your children and grandchildren but also by your friends, family, coworkers and everyone you crossed paths with. I don't know how to go on without you. You leave this earth and take a huge part of me with you. You were so noble, full of life, with a heart so pure and always willing to forgive. I will carry you in my heart forever and will try my best to carry on your legacy of that great woman that you were. I will miss our daily phone calls which consisted of about 10 calls a day, our shopping trips and me bickering with you that it was time to leave, our long conversations over coffee and crackers, the way you posed and asked me to take pictures of you... mom i will miss absolutely everything about you even the simplest things like how you used to fall asleep wherever you were sitting comfortably and all the times you would tell me to take care of your “chiquito” and “lenita”. I find it extremely difficult to accept this loss but today more than ever I am certain that you are at peace with God because you loved him so much. I ask God to give me the strength that I need today more than ever. I don't know where I go from here, how I will be able to live life without the most important person in it. Mom watch over me and our family. Until we meet again. I will love you forever, I will think of you always, I will never forget all the love you gave us unconditionally and how you were there for me without question or hesitation. I will make it a priority that my children and nieces know how much you loved them and what they meant to you. With love mom always and forever, your daughter Aury.
