“ For our dearest friend Nancy—

To say we are heartbroken is an understatement. Though you have left us way too soon, it is not to say you did not live life to the fullest. You filled so many hearts with kindness, happiness and lots of love. You gave everything you could to all of us and we now carry on with your smile and laughter to cheer us along.

When we think of your sudden passing it is comforting to know your life was full of family and friends, happiness and some sorrow, a career you loved and a lot of great adventures.

So wherever you may be, with the winds blowing softly, with the waves crashing gently on the shores, with the sunset of each evening.....until we meet again dear Nancy.....your beautiful and kind spirit will live on in us.

“ Ten days and I still can't process this. Ann and I were court reporters together for almost 35 years, and we could go many months not in touch and then pick right back up. In the last 10 days I think about Ann constantly and talk to Ann all the time...I definitely gave her a good laugh when my husband caught me the day after she passed and I said to him, "Did you just catch me talking to Ann", and he so matter of factly said, "Yes, I did." My husband and I laughed, and I know she was too. She was so much fun, always made me feel so good and I don't know why, but she always to me I was funny and made her laugh even when I wasn't trying...so in that moment I could totally truly feel her laughing. I hope her beloved family feels her too or soon will because "beloved" is an understatement ! Oh how she loved you guys and Arthur and always talked about yas...even your awesome family zooms in this crazy awful past 14 covid months I enjoyed hearing all about. She was very lucky to have had such love in her life and in her heart.

Ann is such a great loss to this world that needs more Anns. I am profoundly sad to lose her, and my heart aches for all of you who she was so very close to. I have been and will continue to pray hard for your strength in coping and hopefully finding some peace knowing Ann is reunited with dad and in great hands as well as still by your side. May time be your friend.

My dear friend Ann, thank you for always being YOU...so very genuine, simple, kind, brilliant in our career and always there to help. Our long conversations and get-togethers will be sorely missed until I see your beautiful spirit again on the better side...in the meantime, I will be happy just feeling your spirit. I love you,
Alison

“ Some of my dearest memories are with Nancy, Linda, Maryellen and the "little ones" at their house. Baking, playing down the basement or just sitting in the big attic on all their beds. Swimming in their pool, 4th of July, living across the street and gathering at the corner for the parade. My deepest sympathy to all Nancy's sisters and brother. And especially to her beautiful mom Pat. Love and peace, Jo-Dee

I can't believe I lost another family member in the same year. You were my matron of honor and my sister-in-law for many years. I can't believe we spoke right after Wayne passed and now you. You sounded so good and we laughed over the memories of Wayne.

I will never forget how we painted and wallpapered my father's kitchen as a surprise and it had to be in one night. It stayed that way until we sold the house.

Always think of you especially when I look at the picture in my room that I gave you on your 1st anniversary to Wayne now it is me and Michael.

Condolences to all the Mole family.

RIP Nancy - if you see any other Conlon say Hi from us Conlon's on earth. 🙏
