

Antonietta Durso

March 1, 2021

Antonietta Durso (nee Marmo) was a caring, supportive, and loving mother, grandmother, wife, sister, and friend. She left this world suddenly on March 1, 2021 at the age of 60. Antonietta was born March 18, 1960 in Bellizzi, Italy to Giuseppe and Nicolina Marmo. She grew up in southern Italy before moving to the United States. She graduated from Herbert H. Lehman High School in the Bronx, NY. She later met her husband, Richard Durso, while working in Key Food Supermarket in Manhattan. After marrying, they eventually settled in Old Tappan, NJ, where they raised their three daughters, Stefania, Laura, and Adriana. Antonietta loved fashion, reading, spending time at the beach, and, most of all, she fiercely loved her family and friends. She will be most remembered for the relationships she cultivated over her lifetime. Constantly putting others before her, she was always there to send a card, drop off a birthday gift, or just send a “thinking of you” text to all those she loved. She cared so much about creating and maintaining strong bonds; a sentiment she engrained in her three daughters. Antonietta was immensely proud of her family, and leaves nothing but beautiful memories behind. Memories that will be carried on by all those who had the great privilege to bask in her bright spirit. Antonietta was preceded in death by her parents and brother Franco Marmo. She is survived by her husband, Richard Durso; her three daughters, Stefania, Laura, and Adriana; her two son-in-laws, Benjamin and Sean; her three grandchildren Conor, Malcolm, and Maren; her siblings Ornella and Maurizio; and an endless list of cousins, nieces, nephews, and friends.
