“ It has been far too many years since we spoke, but I thought of you often. Every year on your birthday, and every time I talked about our camping trips. Some of my favorite memories from High School had your smiling face in them. I remember you showing up on my porch just wanting to chat, and you were the creator of some "great ideas". Avi, I will miss you and I will be praying hard for your Mom and your family ❤️

“ Heartbroken to hear that you are gone. We spoke last summer and everything seemed so good for you. You shared with me your successes in the banking industry, your business with stocks and the trading industry and about the new prospect with Chase. I was so happy and proud of you, as happy and proud of you as I was on that day that I gave you that book. I was shocked but so warmed in my heart by the fact that you kept these pics/ memories of us all these years. Avi you were always so good to those that were close to you. You relentlessly looked out for your brothers from the football team, your sisters/ gals from cheering, your friends, family, loved one and workers from your team at work. I thought you had so many more blessings coming to you on this side. Though I am saddened and don't understand why your time on earth was cut short I know God knows. I find some comfort in knowing that you are at peace and I pray you are wrapped up in the arms and perfect love of the Savior. I pray that God's perfect love and peace fill your family's hearts and bring them comfort and peace.
