“ Barbara was my band teacher when I was in grade school in 1978 and then for my daughter 10 years ago. We remained friends through the years periodically catching up. She was such a lovely and vibrant person. She was a wonderful influence for me and she will be remembered with love.

*My sympathy for her family.

“ We moved to Dumont in 1978 and had the privilege of being next door neighbors to the Gastaldo family. Barbara was a musician as is my husband and they teamed up to play together occasionally. Although, Barbara was the professional, she remained open to that time for fun. We moved to our second home and remained good friends through celebrations and losses and all, in between. Like her dear mom, Dirce, Barb made birthdays, anniversaries and life events, opportunities to send an (always) early greeting of unwavering friendship. This never stopped through covid or her own battle with health issues. In recent years , she and I texted frequently. Barbara, was singularly, the kindest person. She knew your kids and theirs and never missed a chance to ask about them. She kept her medical updates coming and she was absolutely, courageous every step of the way. We loved Barbara and will miss her very much.

*Our condolences to Barbara's family especially, Robert and his loving family.
