

Blanche Taylor

October 31, 2020

Blanche Carolina Taylor was born on April 10, 1926, in Rio Grande, Nicaragua to the late Alvina Forbes Tatum and Wallis Ellis, the last of 15 children. At the age of 7, she migrated to Puerto Cabezas, a place that brought her many memories and lifelong friends.

In Puerto Cabezas, Blanche caught the eye of a young sailor, Stanley Taylor, and they wed on November 19, 1948. Their family grew to include 5 children, Juliette, John, Kay, Charles, and Joan, and niece June. An avid baker, Blanche always made sure to have fresh baked goods on the table, including her famous patties.

In 1981, Blanche immigrated to the United States to join her children in New York. Soon after, she took the title of grandma. Blanche loved her family and family gatherings, especially when music and dancing were involved.

A few of her favorite things were Daytime Television, Family videos, Baseball, and Music, occasionally strumming a few chords on her guitar.

Blanche was a woman dedicated to family and friends who went above and beyond in every aspect of life. Blanche is survived by her five children, her daughter-in-law, son-in-law, eight grandchildren, five great-grandchildren, and many nieces and nephews.

Services were held privately.