

Bonnie Lou Crane Zullo

April 24, 2020

Bonnie Lou Crane Zullo, 88, died at Englewood hospital on April 24th of Covid-19. Bonnie was predeceased by her beloved husband Salvatore Paul Zullo. She is survived by her four children John Zullo, Paul Zullo, Laurie Totoro and husband Jim, Dawn Tkach and husband Walter, seven grandchildren, Austin Knox and wife Darby, Kate Stolle and husband Phil, Sean Zullo and wife Leslie, Amelia Tkach, Adrienne Totoro, Olivia Tkach, Devon Totoro and great granddaughter Annabel Stolle. She also leaves behind her nephews Robert and Michael Zullo, niece Lynn Turner and their families as well as many cousins and their families and the DeGennaros. Born in Columbia Missouri, Bonnie attended Stephens College and always maintained a close connection to her family home there. She and Sal were married on April 10th, 1950 and settled in Demarest New Jersey for over 40 years. While raising a family, she taught art lessons to children, served on the Parent Teachers Association and worked in fashion at Wilners of Tenafly. She and Sal retired to Long Beach Island New Jersey where she served on the North Beach Beautification Committee and was a generous and gracious hostess to friends and family creating wonderful memories that will be cherished. "When you are sorrowful look again in your heart, and you shall see that in truth you are weeping for that which has been your delight." Kahlil Gibran

A memorial service to celebrate the life of Bonnie will be held at a future date when all family members and friends can once again gather together. In lieu of flowers, contributions in memory of Bonnie can be made to: Monmouth

“ *John, Laurie, Paul, Dawn,
My sincerest sympathies on the loss is your mother. I'm just now coming across her obituary and am deeply saddened to learn of her passing. Your father, Sal, introduced me to Ralph Suhm & gave me away at our wedding. I have sweet memories of your mother's generosity and kindness. There were barbeques, sailing on Barnegat Bay... Happy times, years ago.
My deepest condolences... Mary Suhm*

“ Lay down
your sweet and weary head
Night is falling
You have come to journey's end
Sleep now
And dream of ones who came before
They are calling
From across the distant shore
Why do you weep?
What are these tears upon your face?
Soon you will see
All of your fears will pass away
Safe in my arms
You're only sleeping

What can you see
On the horizon?
why do the white gulls call?
Across the sea
A pale moon rises
The ships have come to carry you home

And all will turn
To silver glass
A light on the water
All souls pass

Hope fades
Into the world of night
Through shadows falling
Out of memory and time
Don't say we have come now to the end
White shores are calling
You and I will meet again
And you'll be here in my arms
Just sleeping

*what can you see
On the horizon?
Why do the white gulls call?
Across the sea
A Pale moon rises
The ships have come to carry you home*

*And all will turn
To silver glass
A light on the water
Grey ships pass
Into the west*

Into the west. Annie Lennox

Laurie, I discovered your mother's obituary with great sadness, upon finding her on Facebook & trying to communicate with her.

My condolences to you, John, Paul & Dawn. Your mother and father were special beyond belief. I worked with your father & met and married Ralph Suhm. We were all so young on the sunny shores of Barnegat Bay. Memories of barbeques, the competition of racing Lightnings on the bay will last forever.

“ Dearest BonnieLou, I am forever grateful to have had so many incredible moments with you, throughout my life. You will always mean the world to me, not only because of your love, but you believed in me, and never hesitated to put down whatever you were doing to talk to, instruct, comfort, listen to, and love me. You are a constant in my life since I was 14, and I'm so grateful Dawn and I met cutting gym class together so long ago. To the entire Crane/Zullo/Tkach/Totoro/Stolle family, my very deepest condolences. There'll never be anyone who could compare to Bonnie. Wherever you are now Bon, I'm sure it's already getting beautified. You'll live forever in my heart.
