

Brandon Thorp

March 30, 2021

Brandon Thorp, of East Rutherford, NJ was born on September 30, 1975 in Englewood, NJ to Gordon and Donna Thorp. After spending his childhood in Closter, NJ, he graduated from Parsons School of Design in New York, NY in 2001. Brandon began working as a tattoo artist in 2005, and opened his own tattoo shop, Encrypted Ink Tattoo and Piercing Studio, with his brother, Ben, in Jersey City in 2017.

Brandon was a gifted painter and visual artist, known for his unique, otherworldly aesthetic. He had an offbeat sense of humor, a quietly perceptive intelligence, and a truly gentle spirit and was a true lover of animals.

Brandon was preceded in death by his father, Gordon and is survived by his mother, Donna; his sister, Nicole; his brother, Ben; his Brother in law Eddie, Goddaughter Madison, and his righteous Chihuahua Carlito.

In addition he is survived by his loving Aunts Linda Sandra and Marie and loving cousins Casey and Darren. His was also preceded in death by his beloved cat Forrest.

There will be wake services open to the public on Saturday April 3rd at Barrett Funeral Home in Tenafly, NJ from 9:00am-10:45am, followed by funeral services at George Washington Memorial Park in Paramus, NJ from 11:30am-12:00pm.

“ Grew up in Closter with Brandon before I moved away in high school. Not on social media and just learned and am extremely saddened to hear of his passing. Played baseball and took art classes together. My deepest condolences to his family and friends. Sharing a couple childhood pics we took. The first one was on a class trip, and we remembered it years later and took the second one as a joke. God speed my friend, see you on the other side.

“ So very sorry to hear of Brandon's passing. He was a great friend to my son Chuck and was a frequent face in our home in Closter. We had many deep conversations and it always amazed me how sensitive he was. We will all miss that gentle and talented soul. Prayers and love to tha Thorp family. Linda (Theurer) Falso
