“ Suzanne and Tim, my deepest condolences to you both. I have nothing but fond and funny memories of your Mom - especially with my Pops. Those two were a piece of work together and I'm sure nothing will change in Heaven. Please let it bring comfort to you both to know that he is up there waiting to welcome her with open arms.

*Love,
Dede*

Carol Donovan was an amazing lady and will truly be missed. Her smile and constant warmth was a 24/7 staple in the borough of Norwood. Never said a bad word about anyone, was always willing to help, and made everyone she met feel special.

The good Lord places angels on this earth to help the rest of us get through the day, feel loved, and to provide encouragement. Carol was one such angel, and I am so bless to have known her. My deepest condolences to her family, and may she rest in peace and always feel the embrace of God's love.

“ Tim & I grew up as neighborhood kids together and teammates. Carol is the best. She was like everyone's Aunt Carol - and meant a lot to a lot of people, including me. As youngsters Carol cheered us when we did well and let us know it when we were out of line. As an adult I enjoyed having coffee with Carol and laughing about those times.

Carol, there are no words to describe what you meant to me as my friend and sister. From the moment we met we shared a connection that few people ever experience. You were my rock during the most horrific period in my life. You became Grandma Carol to my grandchildren and my girls said they talked more with you than me when they called. We shared all aspects of our lives and sometimes fought like sister do, but the love we felt for each other always took top priority. You may have been deputy clerk, but to me you were my partner and equal. I could never have done my job if it wasn't for you. You always said "we write great music together!" The staff could always count on you breaking into a song to brighten our day. Norwood was blessed to have had your dedication and service. You gave a good fight my friend and now you deserve to rest. Watch over Andersen and Finnegan as I know you will. I will miss you my friend, I love you,
Lorraine

Carol, you will be missed dearly!! When i first started working with Neglia you always helped me out in explaining on how things worked...you were always so sweet and funny to talk to, when i would call we would talk so much that i would forget why i called in the 1st place. May you rest in peace...
