Charles O. Valentine Jr. age 100, passed away peacefully in his Englewood home on Sunday, February 16, surrounded by his family. Devoted husband of 71 years to the late Madeline (Lynch) Valentine. He and Madeline met and married in Kearny and soon afterwards moved to the Englewood home where he lived for over 75 years. Charles owned and operated Englewood TV for 33 years before retiring in 1986.

His hobbies and interests were varied. He had an early interest in amateur radio and used that experience to serve his country in World War II as a radio operator in the Signal Corps. He came from a long line of carpenters and used his skills to create many artistic treasures he happily gave to family and friends alike. Charles was an avid gardener and seemed to be able to fix almost anything that came to him for repair. He was a devout Catholic,

“ Will miss you, Uncle Charlie...I'll always cherish the memories of the special bond you had with your "little (and only) brother," Warren, who passed away in 2014. You must have missed him so much - now you're reunited with him, your beloved Madeline, and "Cousin Charlie" for all eternity. Rest in peace...

Thanks to everyone for the wonderful photos.
