

Dino Kontos

January 15, 2024

KONTOS, Constantino (Dino), of Dumont, NJ (formerly of Bergenfield, NJ & Old Tappan, NJ) passed away on January 15, 2024. Beloved husband of Roussa. Dear father of Stephanie and Evangeline. He is also survived by his loving brother Steve Kontos and his wife Athanasia, and loving sister Kathryn Comodromos. Loving brother-in-law of Panagioti Dandouli and Eirini Dandouli, and uncle of Evangelia, Aphrodite, Erica, Demi, Evan, Kyriakos, Stratos, and Stavros. Dino moved to Greece in 1985 at age 21 to make fillo and kataifi dough in his family business, traveling throughout Europe to grow connections for the company. While living in Greece for 10 years, he met his wife Roussa whom he would have two beautiful daughters with. He was the Production Manager for many years at KB Foods, a division of Kontos Foods, using his expertise in fillo dough and other products to grow the company. Life was never boring with Dino—he could strike up a conversation with anyone, teach you something new every time you talked, and never fail to make you laugh all the while. Dino could turn your worst day into your best. He enjoyed traveling, skiing, swimming, cooking, watching movies, and spending time with his friends and family. Those that know Dino remember him for his big personality and generous heart. His infectious laugh and full of life persona will never be forgotten. In lieu of flowers donations may be made to St John the Theologian Greek Orthodox Cathedral 353 E Clinton Ave Tenafly, NJ 07670 or LiveOnNY Foundation 30-30 47th Ave 9TH Floor New York, NY 11101.
