

Donald Wein

May 16, 2021

Donald Wein, 73, of Elm St., Tenafly died Sunday May 16, 2021 at the Englewood hospital. He was born January 16, 1948 in New York City, son of the late Ben and Lillyan Wein. A resident of Tenafly for thirty years, he had formerly worked in NYC as co-owner of the children's store Ben's for Kids.

Surviving are his son Nicholas and his wife Sarah Vos-Wein, grandchildren Everett and Wren Vos-Wein, and beloved dog Polo. He was predeceased by his brother Mark, and sisters Anita and Madeline Wein.

Donald was a loving grandfather and a devoted father who always went out of his way to encourage and participate in the interests of his son, and there were many; rollerblading, soccer, archery, RC cars, and kayaking to name a few. He was an avid reader who enjoyed volunteering at the Tenafly Library.

A gathering to celebrate the life of Donald will be held in Ringwood, NJ at a future date to be announced. The family suggests memorial contributions may be made online to the Tenafly Library Friends at bit.ly/jointenaflylibraryfriends or by mail at 100 Riveredge Road Tenafly, NJ 07670

Tribute Wall

“ I only met Don once and remember him to be a quiet and sweet man. I'm sure he will be missed. Sending my love to his family and people who knew him. ”

Jane Harris - June 19, 2021 at 03:20 PM