“ Eddie became my very first friend when I started attending First Presbyterian back in 1969. We were members of Ed Nickel's ushering team along with Alan Noble, Ed Lobeck, Gene Baggs and Frank Scharding. The ushers were all men back in those days and we wore dark suits. How times have changed!

I always looked forward to seeing Ed and Anna each Sunday throughout the years, and remember fondly being at their 50th wedding celebration a few years ago, when Anna wore her wedding dress.

I will miss Ed terribly. My prayers and blessing to Anna, Cheryl, Mark, Gregg and their families.
