To my loving mother , I miss you so much I think of you everytime I walk into our house always thinking you would be their I miss the talks that we shared .I want to thank you for making me be the real man that I am . You always tought me to be kind to others and walk away from trouble . You tought me so much about the real world from your wisdom . I've learned to be me and learned to love myself before I could love anyone else I never forget the times we spent talking and laughing out loud . I tryed my best to take care of you all the way up to the end . Then you passed and for the longest time I was in a hell of my own as time passed I understood it was your time to go home and one day we will meet again . Love always your son Thomas I love you mom your always in my heart .
