“ I have such fond memories of staying at your Mom's house when I was young and her zest for life even as she gracefully aged. Especially in her high heels! We will never forget her joyful presence at family get togethers. Our children too have very fond memories of her. She at last is with your father. Valyce, and family, we are thinking of you all and wish we could be there in person to show our support. We are with you in spirit though and love you all!
