

Emily Natelli

November 2, 2023

Emily Natelli, age 101 of Jersey City, New Jersey, died on November 2, 2023.

She was the dear and last surviving sibling to Kay, Anthony (wife Dolly), Olga, Mario (wife Peggy) and Albert. She was the sister-in-law to Albert's wife, Margaret, and the devoted aunt to seven nieces and nephews and a loving crew of great nieces and nephews.

Emily was a dog lover from the day she was born, nurturing King, Fuzzy and Teddy throughout her long life. And nothing made her happier in the nursing home than to receive a visit from the West Highland White Terrier named Duke.

There will be a private funeral service for her family only.
