“ When we moved to Cresskill from Poland, Emma showed my mom great kindness simply by saying hi and offering to help in the laundromat. Mom who is now 94 has never forgotten the special moment. We all want to express our deepest sympathies to the family. May the special moments you shared with her give you some comfort. Grace Mazur

“ I came to know Emma as fellow parishioner, Cresskill neighbor, and mother of the Looby kids – a few of them my math students at C.H.S. Bernice and I remember her most fondly ‘tho as regular patron of TriValley where we enjoyed many conversations with this delightful and lovely lady. Emma was a truly blessed gift, now an influential saint. I plan to continue those friendly exchanges with Emma. I will pray for her unending happiness and beg her heavenly intercession.

Peace be with Emma and with all those she loves.

“ So sorry for this huge loss. My mom Jean Macchio worked with Emma at Kings and always enjoyed her smile and her stories. So sad they both passed a week apart from each other. She was a very nice lady as I recall from our St Therese school days. Another angel in heaven, Rest In Peace

Emma was a very dear friend of my Aunt Virginia and her family. Emma was truly “family” and was loved beyond words. I will always remember her happy smile and great Irish accent. Love and strength to her family.
