

Florence Wong

May 27, 2018

Florence GM Wong peacefully passed away under the care of Pathways Hospice of San Francisco on May 27, 2018. She was the beloved wife of 35 years of Walter Yin Wong her second husband; mother of Sandy Moy, mother-in-law of Bruce Simonsen and grandmother of Spencer Simonsen with husband Paolo Mercado. She was pre-deceased by her parents and sisters Alice Yee, Frances Anrig, Helen Young and Dorothy Ton.

She was born in Brooklyn and raised in Manhattan, NY. She devoted her life to her marriage, parenting, family and friends. She was a dynamic personality who made friends quickly and impressed everyone with her personal glitzy style. She was “Bling” before the word ever existed. She enjoyed cooking, sewing, music, ballroom dancing, bowling, performing the hula, traveling and especially the night life of casinos and clubs. Once you met her, you would never forget her!

In lieu of flowers, the family would prefer memorials sent in her name to Doctors Without Borders.
