

Gary Bianco

February 13, 2024

Gary J. Bianco, 57, was a one-of-a kind husband, father, brother, uncle and friend. He was a cherished resident of Cresskill, NJ, known for his unwavering devotion to family. He peacefully passed away on Tuesday, February 13, 2024, in his sleep. Born on January 21, 1967, in Bronx, NY, Gary was the youngest son of the late Barbara and Elio Bianco. He grew up in Congers, NY and began working in New York City for about 20 years. He met his wife, Rocio, in 1995, and they were married on March 30, 1996. They were eagerly anticipating their 28th anniversary this March before his sudden departure. Gary found fulfillment in his career as a salesman at Raymour and Flanigan, taking pride in his professional achievements and cherishing the relationships he built with his customers and colleagues, whom he considered his extended family.

In his leisure moments, Gary spent every opportunity with his devoted wife, Rocio Bianco and two daughters, Lisa Marie and Nicole Amanda, creating many cherished memories together. He is survived by his wife and his precious daughters; he also leaves behind his older brother, Bob, his sister-in-law Debbie, and his nephews, Michael and Robert. He will be deeply missed by his aunts, uncles, cousins, friends, and all who had the privilege of knowing him. Gary's memory will live on in the hearts of his loved ones until they are reunited with him again.

“ Please accept our heartfelt condolences. We'll always remember Gary fondly. We have many good memories of Gary and the summers we spent together at the Cresskill pool. Keith will always remember playing horseshoes and volleyball especially closing the pool playing horseshoes with Gary, Bob and Tony. Gary was a great guy. With love, Cherlyn and Keith Demarest.
