“ Dear Tina,
Words are so difficult when trying to express what the heart feels. Since words are how we communicate, we want you to know how sorry we are that George is gone from here but I believe to a better place. I know it must be so very hard for you. So this note is a celebration of your love together. That never goes away! Our prayers are for you to find comfort in that love. And a blessed journey for George. Sending you our love and comfort.

“ Uncle George, baby brother to Evangeline, Elly and Ermionie/Julia (all three deceased) and Evlambia/Evelyn/Bella, was the son (last-born child) of Michael and Annetta Toulas. He was Uncle to Nick and Christ/Pudgie (both deceased) and Anna Georgiadis, Electra Georgiadis Neel, Freddy, Margaret and Michael Scheidl, Victoria Toulas Faivre, Andy Toulas and Anita Kassopulo Phillips. Hopefully this completes the obituary for beloved Uncle George, a kind considerate man. My deepest sympathy to his wife, Fotinoula and son, Peter. Sorry great niece Juliet and I will not be able to attend the service, but Phaedra will attend in our stead.

My great GREEK Godfather George was the much anticipated son my YiaYia finally got after having a very long string of non-sons. My Godfather loved the NY YANKEES, especially Maris & Mantle, fishing in the Hudson River, watching Wrestling matches and The Honeymooners on tv, his best & warmest sister Bella, anticipating the arrival of his bride Fotini at JFK (where he appeared to be floating several meters off the terra firma), having a wonderful son Peter, two BEAGLE DOGS, a fabulous well-read babysitter, an exquisitely GEORGEIOUS, TALENTED, EDUCATED daughter-in-law.....pride for his ACTIVE DUTY SERVICE IN THE U.S.ARMY during the Korean War....My Godfather LIVED & LOVED HIS GREEK HERITAGE with a passion. He spoke our incredibly epistemological Greek language fluently, loved attending the Greek Orthodox church services, FOOD & Dancing, thankful to his wife for her influence and encouragement. He also had the most comfortable bed & comforter in his tiny freezing room in our YiaYia's Manhattan apartment. He loved Fotini's cooking, especially her lasagna (despite its deviation from Greek bill-of-fare). His favorite LP albums were: Rhapsody in Blue by George Gershwin, Leonard Bernstein & NY Philharmonic Orchestra and Irving Berlin's Greatest Love Songs. He smoked Lucky Strikes non-filtered and enjoyed a nice cold beer, although to his credit, he was content with one. Not particularly prone to using a knife, he enjoyed his food in a MANLY WAY. He was the life of the party at our Sunday after church lamb & orzo feasts. This is just a brief sketch of a very decent, humble 1st generation Greek American fella. Thanks for the memories, Rest In Peace/See You at the Top, love Leki
