

Giulia DeSantis-Belfert

November 23, 2023

Giulia DeSantis Belfert, 58, of Closter, passed away on November 23, 2023. Born in Italy, Giulia came to the United States at young age and shared her parents' tenacity to start anew in America. She was a talented hairdresser and cook who also enjoyed spending time with her friends and being surrounded by her family. She was a jack of many trades, having owned a tanning salon, children's clothes store and being the biggest personality at LaVeli Salon. Giulia left a lasting impact on all people who were graced with her presence. She shared a passion for being the life of the party, always involved with good food, fashion and music (especially Disco and Pitbull). She also enjoyed taking Zumba classes, taking long walks in Piermont, and binge watching Netflix shows with her children. Above all, Giulia made time and room to care for her immediate family no matter the cost, especially her children. She'll forever walk the beaches of heaven. Visitation at the Barrett-Leber Funeral Home 148 Dean Dr Tenafly on Sunday 2-4 & 7-9PM. Funeral Mass Monday 11 AM St Mary's Church Closter. Interment Private. Rest in Peace...you fought with all you had. Our friendship began in 1987 in a salon. First haircuts for our children and grandchildren, through the happy events and sad, with your larger than life loving fun personality we will never forget all you gave and stood for out others before yourself . The memories from your wedding day to watching your children become incredible loving adults will forever be in my heart. You always looked after everyone and are now everyone's angel..love you... Continue to dance like noone is watching sweet Giulia. ..Jayne B.

“ I met this amazing sweet lady and her daughter at a Drs visit. She has the most beautiful smile and go getter personality. We chatted and supported one another. She made my day with her smile when I'd see her while volunteering . Fky high with the angels xoxo

“ Giulia came into my life three years ago,.and I was "Aunt Barbara" from that time on. My newfound niece brought laughter, wisdom, empathy, generosity and happiness with her plus new additions to my family tree (Mina, Anthony, Gaetano and her loving mother and father). Bill was already in my family since his birth as his mother was one of my best friends. I am heartbroken to lose this wonderful person and I pray that her family will have comfort in knowing that Giulia touched so many lives and was loved by all who knew her.
