Our deepest condolences for your loss. May you find solace in the cherished memories and the support of those who care about you.

One of my fondest memories of your dad and mom was in Guyana in 1997 for my parent's 50th anniversary. Your dad and mom were dancing at pool side to Elton John song "My butterfly".

May her memory be a blessing. Bunny and family

“ To my dear cousin Gloria I remember the many old years and Christmas celebration we went to at your home in Queens! And I love to hear of the times when my parents lived with you and how you kept everyone together with your love and caring ways. You have left a great legacy for many to remember. Thank you so much. Now you are resting with your Lord and savior and you are with your husband , Uncle Rudley and your son Rudy. We love you and miss you RIP
Amost forgot to mention the time you said to me “see I don’t waddle like a duck anymore I did my two knees” oh how we laughed. I have told so many of my patients about that conversation and they laughed too!Anyhow rest my cousin love you!❤️🙏

“ Dear Auntie Gloria, thank you for being in my life when I was a little girl. You have been a good friend to my mom who is waiting for you, along with Uncle Rudley. You have been a good mom, a good person and I pray the Lord is holding you in His arms and you are whole and well. You will be missed by all those whose lives you've touched. Love and blessings, Abigail

Thank you Aunt Gloria for all you and Uncle Rodley done for me. You took me, and for the many years I lived with you, I was treated like one of your own. You though me about responsibility and how to achieve many goals, never settle for less. And for this i say thank you. I couldn't be where I am at today in life, if it wasn't for your persuasion. May you rest in heavenly peace, love always Orin.

“ Ms. Gloria,

I will remember you forever. I will never forget the Saturday afternoon trips to your home in Brooklyn to get Black Pudding and Pastries. Man those treats were delicious! I remember our meaningful talks. You made me feel most comfortable and at-home in your beautiful home that you shared with your wonderful husband Mr. Anthony in Florida whenever I visited.

Thank you Ms. Gloria for being an awesome, caring and loving human being to all that knew you.

Love,

Dacia Fraser
