“ I was always amazed how she was concerned about me. Whenever I would make my way to Barb and Pam's Hazel and I would end up talking for a few minutes and she always asked specific things about my kids and Michigan with genuine interest. That was just one thing in a million that made her so very special. She cared so deeply!

“ Hazel has been many things to many people: wife, mother, grandmother, aunt, friend; however, it is in her professional role as teacher (and then friend) that we will remember with steadfast gratitude this very special lady. Hazel in the classroom was kindness, gentleness, and skillfulness extraordinaire. Her students and their families are forever enriched by association. Bless you, Dear Hazel.

“ We met Hazel in 1967 when Gay and Bob were dating. We would hang out at her kitchen table where she always joined in the conversation and treated Tom and me like family. There were lots of laughs as her five other kids popped in and out of the house and that's how we got to know all the Censullos.

Whenever we had the pleasure of celebrating with them or the privilege of holding them in times of sorrow, Hazel was the heart and the glue of her great family. She lives on in each of you who were blessed by her life and love.

Hazel, you were a great example to us, and we loved you from Day1. Thank you for your warmth, sweetness and love of life! We'll hold you in our hearts and memories!

Love you,
Jeanne & Tom Segedin
