“ I remember Hilda, Felo and Lily on my first trip to Europe. We visited Greece, Italy and Turkey. My donkey trip in Santorini was legendary and my sunburn on the cruise was pretty bad. Through it all, they were gracious and wonderful and I have loved them forever. Rest in Peace Hilda.

“ I always admired Hilda's beautiful pink hydrangeas that grow in her side yard. Mine, a few feet away, always bloomed blue and I would comment how I loved her pink ones. She seemed proud that I envied hers and, in Hilda fashion, told me to enjoy them whenever I wanted. I will always think of her, but especially so when the hydrangeas bloom.

We will miss your sweet smile and your kind heart.

With fond memories,

Vanessa and Bill
