“ In this time my prayer is that the peace that Jesus our Lord and savior can give to you pours over your entire family in this time of need. There are no words or earthly explanations that can begin to try and to understand the why of this on this side of Heaven. My prayer is that He pours His spirit upon you , that people surround you with love and prayers.

James will be missed so.. His engaging personality, his constant smile and positive attitude are just a few of his amazing qualities that have left us on this day. We morn with you though I have never meant you I am very sad and cannot even imagine the pain you are all in at this moment. As a believer, I do rest in the in the belief that there is a place called Heaven and that on that day we are called home we will sit by His side for eternity.

I will be praying for you for strengthen in the days ahead that as you find your new normal that God will show himself , revel Himself to you.
