

John "Jack" Fernandez

June 15, 2022

FERNANDEZ, John J. "Jack" of Demarest, passed away on June 15, 2022. Beloved spouse of Carmen M. Orta-Fernandez for 34 years. Devoted Husband, Father, Papa, Uncle, and Friend. Jack always brought life to the party with his fiery debates along with his funny, sarcastic, and passionate personality. Jack was a self-educated and self-made man who proudly owned and operated a successful company while always valuing and prioritizing his family over everything. Throughout his life he was an avid collector of art and, later in life, of classic cars, as well. Jack always dressed the part being well-known for his clean-cut style matching his extremely intellectual and headstrong nature. He was committed to his love for politics, CNN, Shark Tank, and, if ever a movie, "The Godfather" or "West Side Story" always making it known that Carmen is his Maria. The memory of his warmth, kindness, and contagious laughter along with a smile that could light up a room will remain forever in our hearts and memories. As Jack would say out loud, "One day I'll go up to the sign shop in the sky!". OH, how deeply missed he will be by all who knew his love. "Bada-Bing, Bada-Boom!".....Visitation at Barrett Leber Funeral Home, 148 Dean Dr., Tenafly, NJ on Tuesday, June 21, 2022 from 2PM-8PM. “ Condolences to you all from the Schiraldi Family. I knew Jack since I was a kid. My Dad and Jack were lifelong friends. My Dad got him his first printing job and Jack paid him back by hiring him at sign masters when my father retired from his own printing business. My brothers and I always looked up to Jack and he even hired them to work for him. I'll never forget the time when I first got my drivers license and Jack stopped by with his Viper. He asked me if I wanted to drive it. Of course I said yes! As I was driving he told me to “stop driving like a little old lady!” And I should get on it. Man was that car fast! Rest easy Jack. You are one of a kind. Say hi to my Dad. ❤️
