“ Dear Judy and family,

It is sad to contemplate that John has passed. He so loved living. I like to think of the joy he took in the holidays, especially Christmas. I will always appreciate his friendship and thoughtfulness to me after the death of my husband and his good friend, Jim. May you be consoled by his great love for you, Judy, and for Margaret, John, and Kristin and your entire family.

Love, Audrey

“ Our hearts go out to John's precious family during this most difficult time. John may no longer be with us but his legacy lives on in the kind and loving family he leaves behind. May your memories be a source of peace, and may your tears turn to smiles as you recall all the wonderful times spent sharing and caring for each other.

Love & Hugs,

Judy, Chris, Madison, Brooks, Daniel and Mom.

“ Dear Judy and family,
It is moving beyond words to look back on a friendship of over 60 years when hearing that an end has come. The memories crowd in, and I realize now just how much John meant to me. I am so glad that I talked with him and with you around the holidays. I had a feeling then that an end was coming, and so my prayers for him intensified. I am sorry that Sigun and I will not be able to be with you at John's funeral, since we are in Paris until the summer. We send our love to you and your children and our new prayers for the repose of John's soul. May he rest in peace.
Love,
Joe and Sigun
