“ Uncle John, I will always remember you for your loving and caring heart, your sense of humor, your rosey cheeks and for not sugar coating what you wanted to say. My strongest memories are surrounded by my life in the city and my commute to New Jersey for family gatherings. Whenever I made the schlepp from the city on the NJT to a family function that you were attending, you always, without fail, took the time to ask...what, where, how, when and then always ....the WHY?!?!? How was the bus ride, how was the traffic, where did the bus drop you off, how long did it take, how much does it cost, did you have to change buses, what's the route, how long did you have to wait, was the bus crowded, how often do they run, are you staying at your sisters tonite or are you going home, where do you get the bus from here and what time ? Somebody will take you. Maybe they can drop you closer to the city. So I would share my bus stories. Then you would ask about my life in Manhattan. I would share my New York stories, and then...the WHY?!?! Always finishing with, "Well, watch out for the FREAKS in the Port Authority!!!" You always made me laugh. That was one way your loving and caring heart shown, but there are two more standouts for me. First, you opened your home and created a permanent living space for you mother in law. That showed your love for her, your kids and so much love for Lillian. You teased Grandma but made her laugh. Second, the "host with the most." Thank you Uncle John again for opening your home and gathering the family together. Thank you for all of the hard work it took to make that happen. Thanks to you, I have really nice, strong memories to hold on to. You and your family have always been in my thoughts and prayers and will continue to be forever. Although this is a very sad time and you are dearly missed; if the cost of having you for my uncle meant losing you to soon, then the time spent was worth every penny. Thank you Aunt Lillian for choosing him. I am forever grateful. "God is close to the broken hearted..." Ps 34:18 Love, your niece, Janelle

“ Going to Sea Side Heights, Tommy had his brown Honda there were 7 of us! Uncle Jay said Missy you curl up in the Hatch!!! Afterwards he said Missy if your parents only knew that I let you ride like that they would kill me! I have many memories that I will cherish forever. Thank you for meeting my parents 50 yrs. ago, and becoming the best family I could ever ask for. I love you Uncle Jay.
