“ Deepest condolences to the entire Loughlin family. John was a caring man, who many times helped my mother with occasional repairs with something gone wrong in her Condo. It's difficult to comprehend losing someone whose family grew up with my family. Someone told me recently that "In life we may not always know the path, but striving for it is what we should desire". Knowing John is in the right place now with God, should be a comfort to his Family. He will be missed.
