Obituary for Joseph A. Ceccon

Joseph (Guiseppe) Abramo Ceccon, 88, from Harrington Park, NJ, passed away in peace surrounded by his loving family in the comfort of his home.

Born in Masi, Italy, Joseph emigrated to the U.S. at age 19 and, in time, became the embodiment of the American Dream. For over 60 years, he managed Valley Roofing in Tenafly, NJ, putting roofs over the heads of countless families besides his own. He built his own two homes in Harrington Park, which were blessed with lively family gatherings and priceless memories.

A self-made Renaissance Man, he was passionate about whatever creative endeavor he set his mind to, as a chef, gardener, winemaker (Grappa, too), golfer and, in his later years, a painter. Joe loved languages and spoke English, Italian and Spanish. Proud of his heritage, he joined La Societa di Mutuo Soccorso Italiana in 1960, a tradition carried on by his sons and grandsons. Joe was always cheerful and funny, famous for having a joke ready for any occasion. He also enjoyed poker and trips to the casinos. Joseph is survived by the five children he raised with his late wife and love of his life, Mary L. Ceccon. Their children and spouses include Susan and Gabriel Ferrara, Anthony and Lisa Ceccon, Andrew and Teresa Ceccon,

Christina (Tina) and Lewis Donnelly, and Louise and Jaf Farkas. Joseph was pre-deceased by his parents, Pietro and Angela, and siblings Jane, Louise, Angelo, Mario and Ester.

Joseph was “Nonno” to his adoring grandchildren Gabriella, Nicolette, Joseph, Gregory, Sophia, Luke, Vance and Lulu. Lovingly referred to as “El Rey” (the king), Uncle Joe has been considered a patriarch to his extended families.

Relatives and friends are invited to celebrate Joseph’s life on Tuesday, December 3rd from 4PM - 8PM at the Barrett Leber Funeral Home in Tenafly, NJ. The funeral mass will be held on Wednesday, December 4th at Our Lady of Victories in Harrington Park at 10AM followed by interment services at George Washington cemetery in Paramus, NJ.

In lieu of flowers, please consider donating to the Wounded Warrior Project (support.woundedwarriorproject.org) or Tunnels to Towers Foundation (t2t.org).

Joseph was a man among men who will be sorely missed.

“ Dearest Christina,

Though I never had the honor of meeting your father, I feel as though I knew him through the beautiful stories, photos, and memories you shared. I can only imagine how deeply you will miss him—a true Italian gentleman.

Please accept my heartfelt condolences. Giuseppe will surely watch over you and your loved ones from heaven, alongside your mom.

*Big hugs,
Francesca*
