“ Our condolences to Cousin Pamela and all of the Tagliareni family on Joe’s passing, a dedicated son, husband, father, grandfather, father-in-law, brother, and friend. We didn’t know him as well as many others did but will always remember the softspoken tone of Joe’s voice and his firm handshake that seemed to say “Hey, don’t mess with me.” But that was always followed by a gentle pat on the shoulder and a few kind words that made you feel special to him. The world is a better place because Joe was once here. We will surely miss him!

“ Pam,

I am so very sorry to hear of Joe's passing. He was so kind. Such great memories of both of you as part of life growing up.

“ Hey, Joe, love you brother! That's what I always told Joe with a big hug when greeting him or saying good bye.
Joe was a good man with a kind heart. He was easy to like. You knew where you stood with Joe; a straight shooter. He loved Cousin Pamela. We lost a good soul this week!
HEY, JOE, LOVE YOU BROTHER! REST IN PEACE.
