

Kathleen M Jaeger

January 23, 2026

Jaeger (Haggerty) Kathleen, 85, of Wall, NJ formerly of Cresskill, NJ died peacefully on Jan. 23, 2026. Kathy was the second of the five daughters of Emma (Hosinger) and Vincent Haggerty.

She retired in 1991 after a 30-year managerial career with NJ Bell. In her retirement she used her management skills at the Office of Concern food pantry at St. Cecilia's Church, Englewood, NJ and in tireless fundraising for the Society of the African Missions in Tenafly, NJ. Those same skills were used in organizing family Thanksgiving dinners that could range from 30 to 60 family members.

Kathy and her much loved late husband Bob (2018) enjoyed traveling the world and although they had no children of their own, their 24 nieces and nephews and their families all knew how lucky they were to have an Aunt Kathy and Uncle Bob.

Kathy was predeceased by her husband Bob and her sister Helen Dougherty. Kathy was also predeceased by her brothers-in-law Tom Dougherty, Bob Feulner and Jack Cirincione as well as many members of the Jaeger families. She is survived by her siblings Patricia Feulner, Mary Cirincione and Margaret (Edward) Mullins and the forementioned nieces, nephews and numerous grand nieces and nephews.

In lieu of flowers, donations in Kathy's memory can be made to the Office of Concern, 55 W. Demarest Ave., Englewood, NJ 07631.
