“ As the chaplain for The Hillcrest Assisted Living Residence of Christian Health Care Center, I was pleased to get to know Lillian while she lived there. She made friends easily with others and joined in the activities and worship life at Hillcrest. Her smiles and hopeful outlook were a joy to behold. Thanks be to God for her life, and thanks be to God that not even death separates us from the love of God in Christ Jesus, our Lord. Alleluia. Rev. Kathy Jo Blaske, chaplain, Christian Health Care Center, Wyckoff, NJ

“ When you lose a friend, it's not the present you think of, but the past and all the great memories you had together. We sure had so many, many good times with Lil. Lillian always went out of her way to make everyone feel special. She was a dear friend and we will miss her.

“ Dear Tom and Dan. Your Mom was a very special person and a very good friend. She was extremely kind and helpful to all around her. So glad I got to spend time with her not too long ago . I will always keep our friendship near and dear to my heart. I'm going to miss our phone conversations. The only consolation to this is that you will now be joined with your Husband once again. I will never forget you my wonderful friend 🥹🌸💕
