

Lorraine McKenna

March 23, 1929 - January 6, 2025

Lorraine McKenna (nee Uszynski) of Demarest, New Jersey departed this world peacefully on January 6, 2025.

Born in Brooklyn, New York on March 23, 1929, she was the daughter of the late Joseph and Lucy Uszynski, who owned a grocery store in Greenpoint, Brooklyn. Lorraine had many fond memories of growing up in Greenpoint with her beloved late sister Adele McCarron and beloved late cousin Barbara Zaleski and other cousins, family members, and friends.

Lorraine and her late husband of 50 years, Hugh C. McKenna, built a home in Demarest, New Jersey where they raised their six children, Kevin McKenna, Deborah Zipper (Richard), Kathleen Dean (Robert), Maureen Moritz (Thomas), and Karen McKenna (Thomas Monahan). She was predeceased by her cherished daughter, Denise Anderson (Richard). Her family grew to include eleven cherished grandchildren and ten beloved great grandchildren. Among the many things that she accomplished in her life, she always said that raising her family was her greatest accomplishment.

Lorraine was a woman of deep faith and was a kind and loving person. She lived her faith through her words and deeds. She had a green thumb, was a good cook, a hard worker with a flair for fashion and art. She will be missed greatly by her family.

In her later life she resided for many years in Norwood, New Jersey and more recently at Sunrise in Cresskill, New Jersey. Her family is deeply grateful to the staff for the care she received there and are especially grateful to Mia who provided loving support to her.
