

Louise J. Kelly

October 21, 2020

Louise was a remarkable woman. In a time when women were expected to fulfill certain roles, Louise thought that women could be more than they were expected to be. She spent her life proving exactly that. In 1948 she earned a full scholarship to St. John's University and went on to graduate with a BA at a time when few women attended college. After marriage, and with three kids, she took on a position as an assistant to a New Jersey State Legislator, a job she held for many years. She was a role model to many, never accepting that the way things are was the way they always had to be. Louise will be sorely missed. She is survived by her children, Adam, Polly and Julie, seven grandchildren and three great grandchildren.
