“ Ms. Yandolino was my teacher at Washington School in Union City. I was a left handed student who smeared ink every time I wrote. She spent time with me after school teaching me how to write upright so I never smeared my paper. She was a wonderful young teacher who. Loved her kids. I never forgot her and have told this story to so many people. I went on to become a teacher and a guidance counselor. Rest in Peace Ms. Yandolino. You made such a difference in so many lives. Never forgotten.

“ Aunt Mary loved her family so much! She went out of her way to visit us in St. Louis and even Monterrey, Mexico! We'll miss her, but thank God for her long life.
