“ Our deepest sympathies to the family on Mary’s passing. I remember the fun times my cousins Anna Sterlini and Anna Filippi and I had with Mary when we got together in Manhattan. We would go to the Museums, Central Park or out to lunch. We even went to street fairs in tenafly, and we never stopped laughing. Our families went way back. We all loved Mary for the beautiful person she was. She will be missed. Roseanne Raccasi
