“ Heaven has brought home a wonderful individual. Our loss, heaven's gain. You will certainly be missed by many, not the least of which will be Matthew, Lauren and Michael. Knowing you from the start of your life, I always enjoyed our times together. Your ability to be kind to be people and your sense of humor was infectious. You and Francine made a great couple and now that union is together again. I am sure you were welcomed home with open arms from Francine, your Dad and all your relatives and friends that have gone before you. I know we will all be in each others' company again at some point, but until then, look over your loved ones here on earth. I will cherish all that we did together in the past. Those memories are priceless, especially #17.

“ My cousin Matt, what can I say. He was wonderful in so many ways. Caring, fun, loved to sing, loved his family. I have a real difficult time thinking that I won't see him again, not while I'm on this earth anyway. I almost don't even believe that I'm writing a tribute about him. Gone way to soon. As we all have said, we have so so many wonderful memories that will never be forgotten. To my Aunt Pat, my Cousins Paul & Keith, and Cousins Matthew, Lauren & Michael, his children... I am so very very sorry for your loss. He will surely be watching over all of you from heaven, another angel for you all. God Bless always! Love Always & Forever, Cousin Patty B.
