“ It's pretty surreal that my Uncle Matt has passed. I love & miss him so very much. He was not only my Uncle, but also my Godfather. There are so many things to say and so hard to put them all into words. He was inspiring, fun, caring, all about family, just a great man. You could reminisce with him for hours. I know that no matter what, he will continue inspiring, not only me, but all of us from up above. He will forever be in my heart. Love you always & forever & Happy Father's Day Uncle! Your niece & God-daughter

“ Words cannot describe or even begin to document the affection, respect and overall admiration I have for Uncle Matt. He has been a part of my entire life, spanning 72 plus years. Living in the same household for my earliest years provides me with numerous memories. He gave me hours of fun and joy. He was my sponsor for Confirmation and was instrumental in me being accepted to St. Peter's College. I worked hard to complete my degree for my parents sake but also for Uncle Matt because I could not disappoint him. His presence in my life helped form the person that I am. I will let others have the final say on that point. Watch over all of us.
