“ It's so tough to know the right words to say, but overall I would like to say Thank you to Aunty Nina for the example with which she lived her life. It's not easy to be a strong woman, and Aunty Nina had an incredible amount of toughness which was evident especially towards the end of her life. I feel so grateful to have been able to reconnect with her and will miss her very much, she was a warm, funny, and worldly individual. The type of community that she and Uncle Narsing helped create was one of unconditional love, togetherness, and trust and I'm grateful to have been part of it. Aunty Nina had an incredible sense of humor and a love for people that isn't easily emulated. I know she's looking down with great pride, especially at Shaina who did everything she could to make sure her mother lived with dignity, ease, and happiness on her hardest days. Shaina carries forth all the great traits of her mother in her so they will live on forever and be passed along the generations. I love you aunty wherever you are.

“ Nina and I were friends that celebrated life's highs & lows for the last 45 years. She was a mother. sister, wife, daughter, grandmother but most of all she was a "mensch".

I'll always have my memories (cross fingers) but not her company. I'll always have her recipes but will miss picking up the phone asking her why my curry dish did not taste like hers --- the lady was one helluva hostess! A plane to Nina was like a bus to me, she went everywhere, always, easily. I admired how many friends she had and kept lifelong. My welcoming friend was family to me and will always be.

*A tree will be planted in Israel in Nina's honor.
She is at peace.*

“ *Sharon, Sunil, Sarita, Shaina and all those who mourn for Nina's loss,
I am not sure when I first met Nina, but I would say it was during Douglas and Sharon's wedding and I recall Nina encouraging me to sit down and join her in a ceremony the day before the wedding. Always gracious. Even when I visited her in Miami while she was battling her illness, she was more worried about me having tea and snacks than the fact that she was struggling to breath. I send my prayers to you all as Nina moves on, and we all will cherish the memories of our time spent with Nina.*

“ Nina was a very sweet and gentle soul. The thing I loved most about her was her pretty and sweet smile. And also she dressed really elegant and always looked so dignified. God bless our sweet friend and May the lord embrace Nina and keep her always warm and safe in his lap. Pray for the family strength to accept this huge loss 🙏

I just learned about Nina's passing and my thoughts and prayers reach out to the family. Nina and I worked together years ago at Weichert Realtors, Franklin Lakes, where she was loved and admired by all who knew her. She was a refined and beautiful person who was so proud of her beautiful family. Hold onto your precious memories as no one can take them away from you. Rest in peace.
