

Patricia Neulen

February 18, 2024

Patricia Roe Neulen, 93, a longtime resident of Tenafly, NJ, passed away on February 18, 2024. She was born August 6, 1930, to James and Celestia Washington Roe of Teaneck, New Jersey. She was predeceased by her husband, Cameron and her daughter Pamela and sister, Mary Ellen O'Brien. Patricia was a graduate of St. Dominic Academy, Jersey City, NJ and was a lifelong devote Catholic. She worked for several years at NY Telephone in New York City. Patricia married the love of her life, Cameron Neulen in 1965. They celebrated 54 years of marriage until Cameron's passing in 2020. Patricia was a long-standing member of the Knickerbocker Country Club, Tenafly NJ and enjoyed golfing and socializing within the community. In addition to her love of golf, she spent many years attending Princeton football games with her husband, a former alumnus of Princeton, along with their many friends. She was a sports enthusiast on many fronts. They also enjoyed many wonderful summers at the Jersey shore as well as going to NYC to enjoy the theater, shop and dine. She enjoyed spending the holidays with her extended family. In her later years, Pat was lovingly cared for by her nephew Peter Diegmann and his wife Suzanne, who survive her, as well as family friend Lourdes Lazurtegui. Mrs. Neulen is also survived by her sister, Celestia Diegmann, nephews John Diegmann, Paul Diegmann, Michael Diegmann, James O' Brien, William O'Brien, Daniel O 'Brien, Retired Marine Colonel Barry Neulen; and nieces, Mary Nichols, Susan Sarazen, and Brenda Kiely.
