

Patrick James Burke Dolan

May 19, 2019

Patrick James Burke Dolan, age 26, died suddenly on Sunday, May 19, 2019 at his residence in Bloomfield, New Jersey.

Patrick was born on April 29, 1993, at Englewood Hospital, Englewood, New Jersey, to parents James Patrick Alexander Dolan (JP) and Glynis Jon Dolan (nee Burke). Patrick was a twin birth and he was born at 4:58 AM, while his “younger sister” Megan Jon Theresa Dolan was born at 5:19 AM. They were delivered by Dr. Richard Lieblich. Patrick’s parents were living at 30 Walnut Place, Closter, New Jersey at the time. The name Patrick, the Irish “Padraig” (paw-drig), means “of noble birth” from the Latin “Patricius”.

Patrick was a graduate of Northern Valley Regional High School in Demarest, NJ, class of 2011. He also attended the State University of New York at Delhi, NY. He was employed at Local 52 IATSE, New York City.

Patrick had been an avid Eagle Scout and was instrumental in creating an amazing patio area and raised bed gardens for differently abled residents to pick the ripened vegetables at the Brooks Farm Park on Hickory Lane, Closter, NJ. Patrick loved the outdoors and was a talented craftsman. He could build and take apart anything and enjoyed creating with his hands.

Patrick was so loved. He was a gentle, soft spoken and kind- hearted loving soul, though handsome and tall of stature. He was the Embodiment in spirit of what an Eagle Scout represents. He was loyal and helpful to a fault, sensitive and aware. He was so close to all of his grandparents and loving nothing more than spending precious time with them daily.

Patrick is survived by his loving parents, James and Glynis; his sisters Colleen Jon, Megan Jon Theresa, Kathleen Brigit; his paternal grandparents James Edward Dolan and Rosemary Theresa Dolan (nee Scanlon); his uncles Michael Burke, Christopher Edward Dolan, John Peter Dolan and Richard Neal Dolan. Patrick is survived by many loving cousins: Kayley Rose, Sophia Marie, Justine, Ava Rose, Chloe Bella, Evelyn and Christopher, Jillian and Douglas, and second cousins Ryan and Robbie. He was predeceased by his maternal grandparents John (Jackie / Red) and Rita Theresa (Cleary) Burke and his aunts Mary Rose Dolan and Kathleen Marie Dolan.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to the Patrick J. Dolan "Memorial Labor Assistance and Scholarship Fund" c/o Local 52 IATSE, 19-02 Steinway St., Astoria, NY 11105.

The funeral arrangements will be handled by the Barrett Funeral Home, 148 Dean Drive, Tenafly, NJ 07670. Visitation hours are Wednesday, May 22 at 2:00 to 4:00 PM, and 7:00 to 9:00 PM. There will be a Solemn Requiem Mass at 10 o'clock to be held at Our Lady of Victories Roman Catholic Church, 150 Harriet Avenue, Harrington Park, New Jersey, 07641. Interment will be at the Westwood Cemetery, 35 Kinderkamack Road, Westwood, New Jersey 07675.

“ You truly are amazing Pat. From our “first date”at TPR where I spilled my soup all over myself to Christmas a couple years ago and every moment inbetween. All most a decade of laughs, heart to hearts and tears. You pulled me out of some dark places and I will always remember that. I wish I could tell you again how much I care about you. You were and will always be my rock. I love you always. Rest Easy hun. My condolences to your family. I will be reaching out soon.

“ No words can describe the pain your mom, sisters, JP & the rest of your family & friends are going thru, but know you left a lasting memory for all of us to hold onto of who you really were. Patrick, you had such a kind loving soul. You just wanted to be loved & accepted, especially by the people closest to you. I had the privilege to take care of you & your sister's when you were 4 years old, a lot of fond memories of how we spend time together all of us. We read, played, talked & had our walks to the school bus many mornings. You were always ready to help clean the house especially if any vacuuming was needed. I am blessed to have many fun memories of our yearly trips to Martha's Vineyard with you, your mom, sisters & the rest of the aunties. You & I would ride bikes around & play badminton while all the ladies were busy doing other things. You were truly a gentle giant young man who had a heart of gold & unfortunately was called home to the fold of God way too early. Patrick may your soul finally find the peace you so desperately deserved to have experienced while you were here among us. You will be greatly missed. Love, Aunt Bettina

“ Pat had such a friendly, loving aura to him. Not to mention a great sense of humor, a truly great person to spend time with. Everything everyone is saying about him always being there to help and having such a big heart is completely accurate. I have great memories with Pat from high school and beyond, and it's such a shame he had to leave us so soon. I feel so strongly for his family. We love you and will truly miss you buddy.

“ JP and Glynis. I will always remember when Patrick would come to our house and I'd bring out the vacuum for him. Such joy on his face. The pool pump was magical to him. Serious business. When Ken brought out the wet vac that was over the top for Patrick. This puts a smile on my face when my heart aches so bad for you. We send light, strength, support and love to you and the girls.

Words cannot express the. Sadness I feel for Glynis and her family. I feel a lot pain knowing that Patrick was trying so hard for a come back to life as we know it and he was succeeding in the process . What can I say except that he is with God who will take very good care of Patrick . He will rest peacefully. Sincerely Sandra Baruch

PJ thank you so much .
He wanted to be a part of local 52 so badly, and finally he was there..
And he tried so hard..
As we know sometimes certain folks don't get cut a break in the tough challenges that are placed before them. Regardless pat held on and kept his chin up and tried day in and day out.
God took him when he was whole .
Thank you for the kind thoughts ❤️❤️❤️
