“ Mr. Hamel always attended BERGEN magazine’s events and happily lauded his daughter Christine’s hard work. He was steadfast—even his failing health didn’t stop him from being among our most vocal cheerleaders. My heart goes out to the Hamel family. May your MANY wonderful memories comfort you.
Rest easy, Mr. H.

“ While I did not know Paul personally, I've worked with his daughter, Christine, for several years now. She has always spoken so highly of him and amazed our team with stories of his courage despite health challenges, love for his family, and determination to travel the world without letting anything get in his way! He is such an inspiration and I know his memory will live on through his wife, daughters, and granddaughters. I send my deepest condolences to Paul's family and hope that many years of happy memories bring them some comfort during this difficult time. With sympathy, Keri Flaccomio & Connor Peyton

“ Paul was always willing to drive his bride where ever she desired. When one of our daughters got married, wedding card was mistakenly left at home and Paul drove Cecilia to Chester the next day to deliver the card just before the married couple was ready to go to the airport! Paul was so devoted to Cecilia, his daughters and granddaughters. Paul will surely be missed.....May he RIP! Condolences to Hamel Family.
Donation will be made to Parkinsons Research in Paul's memory.
