

Phillip Raspe

November 25, 2025

Phillip A. Raspe Jr.

Cresskill – RASPE Jr., Phillip A., 90, of Cresskill passed away on November 25, 2025. Beloved husband of the late Carol O. (nee Ocampo) Raspe for 57 years. Predeceased by his father, Phillip A. Raspe Sr, his mother, Shirley (nee LeBaron) Raspe, and his brother, Paul L. Raspe. Devoted father of Jeffrey, Gordon and his wife Teresa. Loving grandfather of Stephanie, Phillip and Victoria.

Phillip was born in Boston, Massachusetts and resided in Cresskill, New Jersey for over 60 years. Phillip became a CPA in 1960 and from 1970 until his retirement in 2005 worked for William S. Paley and his related entities, including the Museum of Television and Radio and the William S. Paley Foundation in New York City.

Phillip was a great lover of classical music, specifically singing choir and chorale music. He was a performing member of various glee clubs, chapel and church choirs, and choral groups. He began singing in high school in 1948, continuing in college and church groups, and from 1980 through 2015 in local chorale groups, most recently the Orpheus Club Men's Chorus in Ridgewood, NJ.

Phillip also volunteered as treasurer for churches, baseball little league and local choral groups spanning from 1963 to 2012.

Phillip was also an avid sports fan who loved watching the NY Rangers, NY Knicks, NY Giants and especially the Boston Red Sox.

A private memorial service for family and friends will be held in February.
