Raymond grew up in Union City, NJ and graduated from Emerson High School in 1958. He attended New York University and Parsons School of Design in NY and graduated in 1962. He was a proud Veteran, serving his Country from May 10, 1963 to April 30, 1969. He was trained as a rifleman and deployed to Viet Nam in 1965. In Raymond's talented, artistic fashion he was a member of the Third Army Soldier Showmobile which provided mobile shows and entertainment for the troops. Raymond's Art appeared on the many Posters and Playbills of shows throughout his Army career.

In his early years, Ray worked as a Barber in his Dad's Shop - the Emerson Barber Shop in Union City. After graduating College, he worked as a Graphic Artist for Grey's Advertising in Manhattan until his retirement.

Raymond's love for Art, Travel, Cats and Cooking was shared with his longtime partner Sergei Eshinsky. The only thing Ray loved more than his Cats was Serge! After Serge's passing, sadly, Ray was confined to his home and not in the best of health. He still continued with his artwork via his iPad and iPhone and was highly technologically skilled. He will forever be remembered for his wit and pranks and quirky sense of humor.

“ I worked for Ray at ksw&g while I did an internship in the 11th grade as a student at art and design in the late 70's.
I will always have fond memories of Ray. He was a one of a kind person. At 63 now, I never forgot Ray and the decent person he was. Rest in peace my friend.
