“ Sincerest condolences to the Laguatan Family. May the soul of Manong Arte, Rest In Peace. I met Manong Arte, and his family several times on some special family occasions. The most precious time I remember was when our sister Danielle was sick, and I had to fly from Texas to be with Dane and her family; Manong Arte & Manang Evelyn offered me & my hubby to stay in their apartment. They were both gracious and caring hosts to me & Manolo. Manong Arte loved talking to us about his family and their lives together in the Philippines, and finally in the USA. He told us about his job and their vacations, cruises, etc. I could tell from his stories and his actions that Manong Arte was a loving husband to his wife, Manang Evelyn, and a loving and supportive father to all their children, and grandchildren. Manong Arte will be sorely missed, but his memories lives within our hearts! May God grant peace and comfort to his family.

Love to all, and God Bless, From Manolo & Mary Tiburcio- Cabasal and family, from Texas.

“ Hello Dad, I know that when we were young, you worked so hard working 2 jobs and still managed spending time we us brothers, sisters and mom. You have taught me a lot of things like being a good handyman and learn how to cook.. Every time you need me helping fixing the house in Tenafly, I never said no and that's the only time I spend with you talking about mom, brothers and sisters,etc. I remember every time you come to my house especially Christmas, you always sit next to the kitchen. I know that you're not supposed to eat certain food. When everybody is in the living room and dining room , you sneak in some food inside your pant, shirt and jacket. Mom, always ask what's inside your pockets because it's bulky. When you're in my house, I realize that my candies and chocolates in the living table are all gone and the next day, mom calls me to say that a lot of chocolates already melted inside your pockets. It makes us all laughed and I told Marie and the kids. The last two Sundays we visited you in the nursing home, we brought your favorite pan de sal, starbuck ice coffee and a new shirt you requested. You were so happy to see us every time we visited you. You told me that you can't wait to go home in two weeks. When we were leaving , I spent time with you alone. You told me a few times that your life is almost over, but this time you meant it. You also told me to take care of mom and I promised that I will. You hugged me tight before I left. When you said you're coming home, I realized that you're coming home to heaven with God. I will miss you DAD, you're always in my mind and in my heart . I Love You and will miss you, Ricavel
