“ On November 22, 1963 my brother Rick Solow and I shared lunch together and heard that President Kennedy had been shot in Dallas Texas. He was being rushed to Parkland Hospital. I had just came home from Midland Park High School, Rick was just leaving for school, we were on split sessions. We both shared hope that President Kennedy would be okay. We left the house headed in different directions. When we were reunited that evening hope was lost and America changed forever.

“ Rick and I were close friends in the late Sixties and the early Seventies. He was so pleasant to be with because of his smarts, easygoing manner and subtle but sharp sense of humor. I was honored to be a groomsman at his and Annette's wedding, and I will always remember him fondly. So long, old pal, and if there's another chapter beyond the this life, I guarantee we'll reconnect.
